GREAT CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD THE U. S.

Millions Worth of Timber and Mineral Lands Involved.

PROMINENT MEN IN SCANDAL

Grand Juries of Half a Dozen States May Soon Have Before Them Details of a Gigantic Conspiracy to Work Upon.

Chicago, May 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington, D. C., says:

Amazing revelations of a conspiracy to defraud the United States of millions of dollars' worth of mineral and lumber lands will be laid before the grand juries of half a dozen states within a few days.

The frauds, it is alleged, will involve in a criminal manner the names of men high in business and political circles. They include one United States senator, one former United States senator, a man reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in world; a railroad man known from the Atlantic to the Pacific; two of the wealthiest lumber barons in the United States; and numerous other small fry, including railroad officials, coal operators and men at the head of fuel companies.

These men, whose names, for obvious reasons, cannot be made public before the grand jury acts, it is declared, will surely be indicted by the evidence, which is now in the hands of the United States district attorneys in half a dozen western states.

These frauds, it is declared, in an official quarter, extend into a number of states, including California, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Minnesota and the two Dakotas.

TRAIN TAKES FIRE.

Excitement Among Passengers on the New York Central Railroad.

New York, May 25.—The fast Buffalo and Cleveland special on the New York Central, bound west, caught fire Thursday night on the Park avenue viaduct.

Among the passengers were the Chicago National League baseball team and a great number of sportsmen. A woman looking out of a window overlooking the viaduct saw flames bursting from the hood over the front end of the buffet car, near the mail car. She telephoned to fire headquarters and an engine and truck met the train at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station.

The fire was smothered with ashes before it could spread to the buffet car.

The passengers were somewhat excited and most of them left the car until the fire was put out.

The train was delayed only a short time.

STANDARD OIL CASE.

Noted Array of Lawyers in United States Circuit Court.

St. Paul May 25.—Not since the last arguments were made in the famous Northern Securities case in the United States circuit court here about three years ago, has there been so noted an array of lawyers as appeared in that court at 10 o'clock Friday, in the case of the United States against the Standard Oil company, of New Jersey and its allied corporations.

Judges Sanborn, Vandeventer, Hookk and Adams were on the bench and the matter brought for their consideration was a bill of exceptions filed by the Standard Oil company against the government's complaint, which seeks to have the Standard Oil company and its seventy allied companies declared an unlawful combination in restraint of trade and to have the combination dissolved.

Frank B. Kellogg, of this city, represented the government and made the principal argument. He was assisted by M. D. Purdy, assistant district attorney general and C. B. Morrison, of Chicago.

The Standard Oil company was represented by John L. Johnson, of Philadelphia; John G. Millburn, of New York, and H. S. Priest, of St. Louis. The complaint, which was filed several months ago in St. Louis, goes into extensive details concerning various offenses, which it is alleged the company has committed.

The purpose of the bill of exceptions is to narrow the issue in the case to charges against the Standard Oil company, which date back not further than 1899, when the holding company was organized.

The ruling of the judges will determine whether the complaint shall stand as filed or whether it shall be amended in any particular.

MOHONK CONFERENCE.

International Arbitration Assembled for Fourth Session.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 24.—When the Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration assembled for the fourth session Friday, it was understood that the business committee, headed by Dr. Samuel J. Barrows, of New York, had decided to omit from the platform to be reported for adoption, any reference to the limitation of armaments. This was explained by the desire of the committee to confine the recommendations to the Hague conference to matters for which the prospects of affirmative action is more immediately hopeful. It is known, however, that there is considerable sentiment in the conference in favor of a limitation plank and it was regarded as likely that such a declaration would be offered from the floor and that there would be a discussion with a view to adding it to the platform if omitted by the committee. The representatives of the 52 business men's organizations in attendance at the conference already commended a plank for the restriction of armaments, and if possible for their reduction by concurrent international action. It is the time-honored policy of Lake Mohonk conferences, however, while discussion is free and unlimited, not to put anything into the formal platforms on which there is not substantial unanimity of opinion.

Miss Heck delivered an address on work of the Baptist women of the country, which was followed by an address on Baptist work of the women of the north and west by Miss Mary V. Burdette, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Baptist Home Mission Society.

Other women prominent in Baptist conventions north and south also made addresses.

Prohibition Fight Is On.

Valdosta, Ga., May 25.—The early date set for the local option election in this county insures a short, and it is believed, a spirited campaign. The election will be held on Monday, June 24, on a petition signed by a little more than 1,300 voters, and the official call of the ordinary is published this week. The prohibitionists are preparing to make a vigorous campaign. Every other question is overshadowed here by the agitation and the lines are being tightly drawn.

E. H. HARRIMAN MAY NOT BE PROSECUTED

It Is Said He Has Violated No Law.

OPINION COMMERCE COMMISSION

Prosecution of Harriman and Associates for Alleged Violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law Is Not at All Probable.

Chicago, May 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington, D. C., says:

There is a big surprise in store for the people who have been expecting the interstate commerce commission to recommend to the attorney general the prosecution of E. H. Harriman and his associates and the dissolution of their railroad combination for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

At a conference at the White House Thursday the fact was brought out that in the opinion of leading members of the commission no law has been violated by Mr. Harriman.

Grave evils have been discovered which warrant the enactment of laws to prevent their recurrence, but so far as the commission's investigation has established neither the federal nor state law was broken by the financial operations connected with the exploitation of the Chicago and Alton and no infringement of the law by the raising of dividends of Union Pacific to 10 per cent per annum in spite of the peculiar circumstances surrounding this step. The conference at the White House was between the president and Chairman Martin A. Knapp, of the interstate commerce commisison.

Mr. Knapp declined absolutely to discuss his conversation with president Roosevelt, but from another authoritative source, it was learned that he was called to the White House by Mr. Roosevelt who desired to ascertain the facts in connection with the commission's report on the so-called Harriman situation.

The commission desires to complete its report by the first of July. It will merely present the facts and submit them to the attorney general for his consideration. But upon the the showing of facts to this time the committee does not believe that prosecution will be begun, or, if it is begun, that it will be upheld by the United States supreme court.

Defined Quarantine Law.

Mexico City, May 25.—A dispatch from Guaymas says that great excitement prevailed at that port on Wednesday, when 1,200 Chinese, on board the steamer Moori King, attempted to land in defiance of the Mexican quarantine officers. The steamer arrived in port a few days ago, carrying 1,300 Chinese and 300 Russians who are to work on the railway extensions. According to the regulations of the port, the vessel was held in quarantine. After a time, the Chinese became turbulent. They organized and took possession of the steamer's launches and boats, and going over the sides in hordes, made for the shore. The captain of the steamer signalled to the shore for the gunboat Democra, and the lighthouse tender Maizalland responded, and the Chinese put back to the steamer. These same Chinese were participators in a riot while the vessel was crossing the Pacific ocean.

No Actor's Name Inscribed.

New York, May 25.—No actor's name will be among those inscribed in the Hall of Fame at New York university next Thursday. The vote of the jury of 95 electors chosen from the country at large, showed, however, that Charlotte Saunders Cushman lacked but five votes of being put on one of the tablets. As she has gained 26 votes in five years, it is probable her name may be inscribed in 1910. Edwin Forrest, the only actor mentioned, got only six votes, the same number he received five years ago.

OPENING EXERCISES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Baccalaureate Sermon to be Delivered at Tabernacle Today.

SERVICE IN THE EVENING

All Services Will be Conducted in Tabernacle, and First Commencement of New University Promises to be One of Eminent Success.

The commencement exercises of the University of the State of Florida, the first to be held since the removal of the institution to Gainesville, began Saturday night at 8 o'clock with a debate by members of the Dixie Literary Society. This was held, as all the other exercises will be, in the Tabernacle.

The large auditorium had been very tastefully decorated. Festoons in the college colors had been hung about the walls, and long streamers ran from the sides to the dome, where they were caught in a wreathe. The wall behind the platform was decorated with red and white bunting, the colors being those of the senior class, while two silk American flags directly behind the stand added a finishing touch to the color scheme. The stage was beautifully decorated with massed plants loaned by the experiment station.

The program began with a selection rendered by the Duval Orchestra of Jacksonville. Then the secretary of the Literary Society read the following question for debate: "Resolved—Granting the Cubans desire annexation, that the United States should annex the Island of Cuba." The affirmative of the question was defended by D. S. Bryan of Dania, and Jas Kirk of Jacksonville; the negative was upheld by T. Z. Cason of Island Grove, and M. L. Moremen of Switzerland.

The debate differed in one respect from most college debates: the speakers having their facts and requirements well in mind, but not having set speeches. The audience was impressed by the fact that they were debating rather than declaiming speeches committed to memory.

The judges of the debate were the Rev. Dr. Jameson of Mercer University, Rev. F. H. Craighill, and Mr. W. W. Hampton of Gainesville. The decision was in favor of the affirmative.

The three or four selections rendered by the Duval Orchestra added a great deal to the enjoyment of the evenng.

Today's Program.

The program for today promises to prove of unusual interest. The services will comprise the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. S. Y. Jameson, D. D., president of Mercer University, Athens, Ga., and one of the most eloquent preachers in the South. It is quite an honor that Dr. Jameson consented to come for this special work, through the invitation of Dr. Andrew Sledd, and his presence is appreciated.

The service, which will begin at 10:30 this morning, will be opened by an invocation by Rev. T. J. Nixon of the First Methodist church. This will be followed by the hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King," after which the sermon will be delivered. After the sermon there will be another hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," which will be followed by prayer by Rev. Thos. P. Hay, followed by singing of doxology and benediction.

The Evening Service.

In the evening a sermon will be delivered by Rev. Thos. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian church to the Y. M. C. A. The services, however, will be opened with an invocation by Rev. S. Y. Jameson, followed by a hymn, "O Worship the King All Glorious Above." This service will be concluded by prayer by Rev. W. F. Yocum, the singing of the doxology and benediction.

The Work for Monday.

Monday will be a particular interesting day on the program of exercises, as there has been a most interesting and instructive list mapped out for that day. This will be the declamation contest of the freshman-sophomore classes, and the subjects selected are of the highest order.

The exercises will begin at the Tabernacle at 10 a. m., and the program will be as follows:

Came from Bradentown to Investigate Water and Sidewalk System.

A committee of Bradentown people comprising Messrs. Turner and Wardham, who were sent here to investigate the city water works and sidewalk system, have returned to their home, after a thorough examination.

Messrs. Turner and Wardham arrived on the early morning train and went immediately to work, completing their mission by noon. They visited the water works plant in company with T. W. Shands, and expressed entire satisfaction. They afterwards investigated the sewerage system, which they declared to be one of the most perfect in construction they had ever seen.

The gentlemen left in the afternoon for their home, and it is needless to add will make a good report.

DRAINAGE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

The Good Roads Bill is Sidetracked in House.

THE GOVERNOR VETOES BILLS

Jacksonville Charter Bill Veto Sustained, But Mr. Farris Will Introduce Another—Other Happenings in Both Houses of Legislature.

With all the courage of leaders who continue to battle in the face of practical assured defeat, the opposition to the new drainage bill in the Senate Friday fought the last inch of ground, but all to no avail, for when the roll was called on the final passage of the bill the drainage forces won by a score of 20 to 12. The determined opposition was very much in the nature of a surprise, as shown by the very manner in which the bill was called up. The Senate was considering the Humphries bill perfecting the existing statutes relative to violations of the local option laws and while awaiting the preparation of an amendment, Senator Crane called up his bill, stating that it could probably be disposed of in a few minutes. Senator Humphries yielded, but the minutes became longer and longer. An adjournment was taken for dinner and after that the minutes became hours and darkness had begun to envelope the earth when the vote was taken. Senator Sams voted in the affirmative and immediately after announcement of vote gave notice he would Saturday move reconsideration.

Railroad Mileage Tax.

The passage of the railroad mileage tax bill was, of course, expected, and its disposition required but a few minutes, Senators Buckman and Harris alone opposing it. The latter from the chair in explanation of his vote said in substance that he voted against the bill because Henry M. Flagler was now building in Florida a railroad that would cost $27,000,000 for the 128 miles of its construction and from which neither Henry M. Flagler nor his children, nor grandchildren nor great grandchildren could ever receive a dollar's worth of benefit, and this additional tax on this road at least, was unfair.

Revenue Bill.

The revenue bill now being engrossed is a big measure in more than one respect, though the changes in existing laws are not so great. The bill was prepared by a master hand, Senator Crill, the chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, and is also believed to fully cover defects in Florida assessment laws as indicated by a recent decision in the United States court.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a. m., President Harris in the chair and a quorum present.

Only one new bill was introduced in the regular order, Senate bill No. 444, by Mr. Humphries—A bill to be entitled an act exempting the South Florida Loan and Trust Company of Arcadia, from the interest laws on loans made for the purpose of building upon and otherwise improving real estate on the monthly repayment plan.

Senator Humphries called up Senate bill No. 333, on table, subject to call, being a bill to be entitled an act to provide a penalty for selling intoxicating liquors, wines, beer, ale and beverages in counties or precincts voting against such, and to provide a penalty for selling liquor without first paying the license required by law in counties voting for the sale of liquors; and defining what is an intoxicating liquor or beverage in such cases; and prescribing a form of book to be kept by druggists; and to prescribe rules of evidence in such cases; and to prescribe forms of indictment and information in such cases; and defining the duties of certain officers in such cases. The bill was read in full the second time with favorable report from the committee on temperance, with amendments which were adopted together with others offered by the author of the bill and Senator Buckman. The bill was then temporarily passed, pending preparation of other amendments.

Messages from the House of Representatives were read, and House bills referred to proper committees and Senate bills passed by the House ordered enrolled.

Report from special committee to visit insane asylum was received, ordered spread upon the journal, and 500 copies ordered printed.

The Senate then adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Called to order at 9 a. m., Mr. Knowles in the chair. Roll call, 67 present. Prayer by chaplain. Correction of journal.

On motion of Mr. Parkinson of Volusia the rules were waived and the Senate messages were read.

Senate bill No. 438, by Mr. Sams of the Twenty-eighth—For relief of J. W. Perkins, county solicitor of Volusia county; passed under suspension of rules, on motion of Mr. Parkinson.

Governor's Veto Messages.

On motion of Mr. Melton of Duval the veto messages of the Governor were read. The first was the Farris bill amending the charter of the city of Jacksonville. The reasons assigned for the veto are that the citizens of Jacksonville already have the right to amend their own charter by popular election; the unlimited powers of the board to fix their own salaries as officers in charge of various city departments, without bonds or time limit. The unlimited powers of the board he considers unprecedented and fundamentally wrong in principle.

The veto of Mr. Faulkner's bill, fixing the terms of court of the Third judicial circuit, was read, the reason being that the veto was requested by the introducer of the bill and two Senators interested. After discussion by Mr. Register, Mr. Bradshaw and Mr. Faulkner the veto was sustained unanimously.

State Prohibition Killed.

House joint resolution No. 188, by Mr. Crawford of Orange—State prohibition amendment. Mr. Crawford invited full discussion on the question. Mr. Williams of Jackson said he had the moral courage to declare his support of everything for "God, home and native land." He spoke for a few minutes very forcefully in favor of the amendment as a Democratic measure and a moral one. Mr. Richbourg moved the previous question which was ordered. The vote was, yeas 35, nays 10. Less than the constitutional three-fifths vote, and the House refused to pass the bill.

House bill No. 546, by the committee on finance and taxation, the general appropriation bill, was read in full and discussed.

Afternoon Session.

Afternoon session was called to order by the speaker at 3 p. m. Roll call, quorum present.

The House resumed consideration of the appropriation bill. After half-hour additional discussion the new bill was ordered engrossed.

House bill No. 506, by Mr. Dupont of St. Johns, was then taken up. This bill provides that at the next general election the people shall vote on the question of moving the State capitol to some point east of the Suwannee river, and in case of an affirmative vote, the next Legislature to designate some suitable point and submit the question as a constitutional amendment for final ratification.

House bill No. 477, by Mr. Malone of Monroe—Relating to destitute lunatics, was passed, under suspension of rules.

Senate bill No. 177, by Mr. Harris—Validating and confirming all letters patent hitherto issued by the Governor and secretary of the State, creating corporations to carry on two or more separate and distinct businesses, was called up by Mr. Melton. Mr. Farris moved to place on final passage, which was agreed to, and the bill pasesd.

House bill No. 480, by Mr. Harvell of Santa Rosa—Requiring certain officers to make the reports to State auditor; passed.

Night Session.

The night session was called to order at 8 p. m. by Speaker Matthews. Roll called, quorum present.

Consideration of the good roads bills, prepared by the joint committee on public roads and highways, and Representatives MacWilliams, Parkinson, Farris, Smith and McKenzie, respectively, were all indefinitely postponed on motion of Mr. Calkins of Nassau. There was very little debate to the merits of the bills themselves, most of the discussion being on amendments.

The vote on the Smith bill was 32 to 15, and still more unfavorable on the others. There is evidently no prospect of securing any good roads legislation at this session, as the various bills covered the ground from every standpoint.

The House adjourned at 10 o'clock until 9 a. m. Saturday.

Early Summer Sale at Hyde's.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions, the store of the G. W. Hyde Company was crowded all day Saturday, the opening day of their Great Early Summer Sale. The very fact that the store was crowded, inasmuch as they were delayed in getting out their circulars for the sale, is evidence that what few did get them responded promptly and no doubt told their friends of this sale They are offering some very low prices on their different lines of dry goods. To one that knows the condition of the cotton market their prices are rediculously low, but you must remember the G. W. Hyde Company are in position to handle the output of the average mill and in many cases can name their own prices and when they get a good thing their customers are sure to share in it.

Warranty and mortgage deeds for sale at this office. Fifty cents per dozen or $3.00 per hundred.

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong?

The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 328 W. 36th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

REMINISCENCES OF FLORIDA AS RELATED BY REV. J. C. LEY

Rev. J. C. Ley, a well-known and popular minister all over Florida, and especially in this section, has written, in a series of "Reminiscences of Florida," an article relative to the early days of this section, which we deem of sufficient interest to publish.

Mr. Ley is one of the oldest preachers in the State, and is a pioneer, having assisted in the organization of the Florida conference. For forty years or more he has served his people faithfully and efficiently, during which time he has become thoroughly posted on matters.

The following is what Mr. Ley has to say. The article appeared in The Times-Union of last Sunday:

A brilliant author has discoursed that "What men call a rose, would smell as sweet if called by any other name." This may be true of the rose, but is not true of everything. What is now called Orange county, was upon the first maps called Mosquito county. Perhaps during the war, as the soldiers had to camp where there was plenty of water they thought the latter name appropriate. Indeed, I was not disposed to question the name upon my visit, nor did the public seem inclined to flock thither in great numbers, as is evidenced by the fact that at a general election, as late as 1844, there were only seven votes polled. But on further acquaintance I have decided that as a whole these posts (mosquitoes) are not more numerous there than in other counties in the State. Nevertheless the citizens wanted the name changed and the Legislature granted their request and thus we have an orange for a mosquito. Since that time the population has increased perhaps more rapidly than in any other county in the State. The planting of orange trees, raising oranges and selling groves has been the chief industry.

The church has made fine progress also in this county. In 1860 while serving the district and holding a quarterly meeting at Melonville a young man approached me after meeting and asked, "Can't you send us a parson next year?" On making inquiries he told me that it was about twenty miles from there were some twenty families in the settlement. "Have you never had preaching there?" He answered: "Well, I have heard that a parson came down there once, but he never came back; I expect that they didn't take care of him for you know it is the nature on um to go where they take good care uv um." At that time we had one young man just out of school as a missionary in that county, now we have six pastoral charges, while all the branches of the church are well represented. In '85 I served the Apopka city circuit. At that time there was very large immigration to the county, at Eustis a considerable town was built in one year, the settlers living in tents till they could build houses. From there to Apopka the traveler was never for any considerable length of time out of sight of a house. In that winter we had snow in Apopka.

We turn now to Alachua. This was one of the old counties, and I was told originally extended from the Georgia line to Tampa bay. But on my first acquaintance, there was Columbia, Alachua, Marion, Benton and Hillsboro. Of these I think Columbia was the most populous and Alachua the most productive. Newnansville was the county seat. J. W. Pearson, George L. Brown and one or two others were merchants. S. Fagan ran a wheelwright and blacksmith shop. There was a boarding house, I think kept by Mrs. Stanley. A school, a church, two lawyers and two doctors with five or six families made up the population. It was quite a town for the interior of East Florida in those days. The soil was fine. Indeed, Alachua and Marion were considered the best farming counties east of the Suwannee.

Around Newnansville M. Dell, J. W. Stanley, S. Pyles and others were considered large planters. Micanopy was a small town, noted for its health, the beauty of its surrounding lakes, rich hammocks and the conservative character of its people. Here in the twenties the Rev. J. L. Jerry formed and organized a church which exists today and here, the name of Micanopy, the Indian chief for whom the town was named, and who perished at the hands of Osceola because he would not violate his pledge of peace to the whites, and the name of his daughter who drowned herself for love and gave her name to the beautiful lake Tuscawilla, is still cherished. Wacahoota (cow house) was a small village; here the writer preached in 1845 and became acquainted with Col. J. F. McDonnell and others. The war was considered closed and Mr. M—, Mrs. Crum and her granddaughter, little Mary Harm, were riding in a carriage with Mrs. Harm who was on horseback. On entering a hammock a volley of five rifles were discharged at the carriage. Mr. M— sprang from the drivers' seat and was soon out of sight. The Indians rushed to the carriage, cut the throat of Mrs. Crum. The child rushed passing among them and reached her mother, exclaiming, "Oh Ma, they have killed Grandma." Mrs. Harm reached down, caught the child and lifting her on the horse galloped away. The Indians' guns were empty and they did not follow. Mr. M— reached a place of safety, and it was found that one ball had entered his chest, passed through his lungs and lodged in his body. He, however, recovered and lived to be an old man, a successful planter, having filled satisfactorily different public trusts; he peacefully passed away honored by all. His death was supposed to be hastened by the effects of that ball, the last shot of the seven years' Indian war.

THE WOODMEN CIRCLE.

An Interesting Meeting of Woodmen Auxiliary Thursday Night.

The Woodmen Circle, Auxiliary of the W. O. W., met at the Masonic hall May 23rd. Many, many thanks to the Rebekahs for the privilege.

With the aid of Soverigns Brooks and McLeod and Sovereign M. E. Tinsley, the degree work was beautifully exemplified. Our talented musician and much loved Sovereign Brooks inspired us all with her music.

Sovereigns Warren, Bailey and Howell were introduced in the mysteries of woodcraft, and we are proud of them as members, for they will make efficient workers.

Miss Ora Seigler received many compliments for the manner in which she performed her part.

The Woodmen Circle is the only authorized auxiliary of the W. O. W., and no gentleman can join unless he is a member of the Woodmen of the World. Any lady can join who is recommended by a member. We have a membership of nearly fifty and hope to double our membership before the year is out. Those desiring to become members can call at Dr. J. M. Dell's office and he will take pleasure in writing your application.

Woodcraft is superior to all other fraternities inasmuch as we allow no sovereign to lie in an unmarked grave. Our organizer, Mrs. S. A. White, has formed a circle in Williston and Bronson.

Sunday there will be an unveiling in Williston. The Woodmen Circle will assist. All camps are invited to attend. The Woodmen Circle will meet June 13th at the Masonic hall. Let every member be present.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlan's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all druggists.

All the Republicans of Ohio are determined to have harmony in the party, but most of them seem to realize they must fight for it.

"Gentleman" Jack O'Brien seems to have met the same finish that comes to all men who try to combine the business of being gentlemen and prizefighters.

The shell road now going down between DeLand and Daytona will be a big advertisement for Volusia county. There is nothing like having a progressive board of county commissioners. Alachua is building hard roads also.

Speaker Cannon has been nominated for Presidency by the Republicans of the Illinois Legislature and Fairbanks has nominated himself and Boss Cox has nominated Taft. Are the people to have nothing to say about who they want?

There were 3,014 breakages of rails on the principal railroads in New York during the three months ending March 31. Most of the breakages were in rails rolled since 1899, which would point to the steel trust as the chief culprit. Is the tariff protected trust to be allowed to charge the highest possible price for steel rails and at the same time manufacture them more imperfectly than its predecessors used to? If the tariff was abolished or reduced so that competition would ensue, the price of rails would be lowered and the quality better.

The department of Justice has announced its intention of instituting proceedings in a few days against the powder trust whose head is Dupont, the new Senator from Delaware. The Bureau of Corporations has been hard at work investigating the operations of this trust for months past, and has discovered that not only has it been powerful enough to almost completely stifle competition, but that now has the Government entirely at its mercy and in case of war could exact any price that it chose for the powder necessary to the country's defense. Whatever is the outcome of the prosecution, it is almost assured that the Government will establish a number of factories of its own for service manufacture.

The bill introduced by Representative McKenzie appropriating $5,000 for a statue of Florida's great citizen and statesman, Stephen R. Mallory, the statue to be Florida's contribution to the national statuary hall, will meet the approval of all Floridians. The appropriation will be sure to pass, and Florida, one of the few States not represented, will then place before the people of the world in the nation's capital the effigy of her favorite son. Stephen R. Mallory was an illustrious representative of the South in those bygone days so dear to memory. He served his State and the Southern Confederacy with unswerving faithfulness and devotion, having represented the former in the Senate and the latter as secretary of the navy. It is pleasant to think of our great men of the past, and their glorious deeds should never be held up for the admiration and emulation of successive generations.—Tampa Tribune.

FARMERS SHOULD DIVERSIFY.

Make your farms self-sustaining. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, applying equally to man and beast. When you have provided an acreage of diversified crops sufficient to meet the demands of the home supply it would then be proper to consider the extent of the money crop. Reduce the cost of labor through the use of the latest and most approved farming implements. Rotate your crops, plow deep, harrow and roll your lands. Increase the fertility of the soil, supply needed humus, and improve its mechanical condition by growing leguminous plants wherever they can be sown or cultivated. Institute a systematic method of increasing the composit heap, and cut down the heavy bills for commercial fertilizers.

The legume and compost heap should be the farmer's most highly-prized bank account. With their assistance he can at once commence to travel the inviting road to independence and wealth. Without them he must continue to look for help only from costly sources. The time is not far distant when we hope to see that fulfillment of prosperity on the farm which is so much to be desired. We are glad to see every department of business in the commercial world prosper, but not at the expense of the farmers. Let the farmers work out their independence without fear or trembling, gradually abolishing the credit system from the future conduct of their business.

It has been settled by the party in power that Oklahoma and Indian Territory are not to come into the Union as a State till after the next Presidential election, if then. It is purely a matter of politics. Three or four Democratic Representatives and two Democratic Senators are not wanted at the capitol, and there are plenty of good reasons why they will not get there. Fault is found with the constitution that Oklahoma has adopted. It is said to be too radical and too hard on corporations. This is a remarkable complaint from a "trust-busting" administration. Then it is claimed that the State has been Gerrymandered so that it will never be anything but Democratic. It takes a pretty fair sprinkling of voters to Gerrymander a State in the first place, and if this has been done, which is open to question, it is no more than what was done in the case of Ohio, and other States, but that was in the interests of the other party. Anyhow the fate of Oklahoma is settled for some time to come. The constitution cannot be adopted without executive approval, and it has been settled by the party leaders that this shall not be given.

What Florida should have in her next Governor is a man of education sufficient to use the English language correctly and address himself intelligently to any and all public questions of State. A man who has been used to thought, study and action along lines of great public moment. A man of mental power. A man of public experience. A man of absolute moral character and uprightness, not only in his own person but in his ideas. A man who would not debase himself nor degrade the high office of Governor, or a lower office of any sort, by bribery, vote buying, whiskey treating, or any other low-down, slum method of gaining a political victory. In fact, a man who will stand the peer of any Governor of any State in the Union, whom we shall not be ashamed of or make apoligies for. Is there any such man around here? Let him stand up and show himself.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Hannis Taylor, former minister of the United States to Spain, has been talking in Washington and has said a few plain, if perhaps brutal-sounding things that it does the country good once in a while to hear. He denominated the peace congress in New York as "tommy rot," or words to much the same effect. And Mr. Taylor is not the sort of a man who would have the United States walk among the nations with a chip on its shoulder. He said that he recognized the value of arbitration as a method of settling international difficulties, and would be glad to see it resorted to whenever practicable. But he pointed to the way in which the so-called peace congress broke up in a row as an evidence that the world was not ripe for an era of brotherly love with no big stick under its coat-tail. He said that in this day of imperfect humanity a powerful navy that knew how to shoot was about the best peace congress this country could keep. He said it was cheap national insurance to build battleships and he did not want to see the navy reduced by a single tugboat. He also had something to say about the acquisition of the Philippines and intimated that in fifty years from now there would be about as much chance or wish for selling them as there would be today to get rid of the territory comprised in the Louisiana Purchase. All of which may not be strikingly altruistic, but it sounds remarkably business-like.

Only one more week and the 1907 session of the Florida Legislature will be history.

WIEGAND'S MASS TO BE SUNG HERE

One of the Greatest Musical Treats the City Has Ever Had.

MR. CADWALLADER'S EFFORT

It Was Through Him and His Influence That This Great Aggregation of Musicians Came Together—Mass Will Be Sung on Wednesday Night.

On Wednesday evening, May 29, there will be given at Holy Trinity church a grand sacred concert, at which will be sung, for the first time in Gainesville, Wiegand's Festival Mass in E flat.

The perseverance with which the soloists and chorus have worked to acquire a knowledge of this grand composition is indeed commendable; the resulth they have achieved, evidenced at the recent rehearsals, are proof positive that Gainesville can have good music if it chooses. There is probably nothing that tends so toward social advancement and instruction as good music; we cannot all be Carusos, De Reskes, Melbas, Schuman-Heincks, Scottis, etc., but there is somewhere, in almost any city of this size, enough musical talent, which if brought out, properly directed and used, would materially help that talent and the community at large as well. No one, musician or otherwise, who has ever heard a good production of opera, with its solos, chorus, orchestra accompaniments and all the artistic settings therewith, can but admit the good there is in it. It is to be hoped that the interest in this production shown and increasingly shown, despite of hot weather, a season of the year when a great many are absent, and all the discouragement incidental to chorus work, that interest may not decrease.

In addition to the seven numbers contained in the Mass, there will be two baritone solos by Rev. F. Stuart Hyatt, who has only lately come from the field of opera with a most enviable reputation for quality of voice and masterly execution of his work; two organ solos by Mr. Wm. Packham, Mus. Bach., late assistant organist of Chicester Cathedral in England, and two soprano solos by Mrs. W. S. Prindle of this city, whose remarkable voice has been a source of pleasure to her friends—for she has not before appeared in concert in our city.

The chorus, on which falls the work in Wiegand's Mass, is made up of the following ladies and gentlemen:

Soprani—Miss G. L. Balis, Miss V. Bennett, Miss Bessie P. Brown, Miss Ida B. Colman, Mrs. J. H. Colson, Miss Nell Da Costa, Miss Catherine Hampton, Mrs. J. A. McKinstry, Mrs. A. L. C. Pitts, Mrs. B. P. Richards.

Alti—Mrs. S. S. Abbott, Miss F. C. Balis, Miss G. M. Cushman, Miss M. A. McMillan, Mrs. S. L. Robb.

Tenori—Lieut. L. R. Ball, Prof. R. W. Clothier, Mr. W. M. Dale, Mr. J. A. Goodwin, Mr. Kenneth H. Grieve.

Bassi—Rev. F. Stuart Hyatt, Mr. H. A. Kendall, Mr. L. C. Lynch, Col. I. E. Webster.

Violins—Miss Jessie Evans, Miss Minna Hampton, Mr. Harry Pearce, Miss Christine Richards, Miss Emily VanDeventer.

Accompanist—Mrs. L. Becker.

Conductor—Mr. W. E. Cadwallader.

Ticket programs will be on sale at Miller's store Tuesday morning.

Card of Thanks.

George A. Gleason and children desire through The Sun to express sincere appreciation and thanks for the kindness of friends during the recent illness and subsequent death of wife and mother, Mrs. George Gleason. The guilty parties made their escape.

The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Roosevelt Again Endorsed.

Montgomery, Ala., May 25.—At a meeting of the republican executive committee of the second district held in Montgomery Thursday, resolutions were adopted endorsing Theodore Roosevelt for a third term and calling on him to offer himself for the honor. It was an enthusiastic session, held in the office of Charles H. Scott, national committeeman from Alabama. In addition to the main resolution the work of Committeeman Scott and State Chairman J. O. Thompson was approved.

If You Don't

Succeed the first time use Herbine and you will get instant relief. The greatest liver regulator. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and all liver complaints. Mr. C—. of Emory, Texas, writes: "My wife has been using Herbine for herself and children for five years. It is a sure cure for constipation and malaria fever, which is substantiated by what it has done for my family." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Attention, Public.

There will be a joint meeting of the Gainesville Board of Trade and the citizens of Gainesville at the council chamber at 10 o'clock, on May 30, who will confer with representatives of the railroads entering the city in regard to location of the proposed union station. A full attendance of everyone interested is requested and desired. B. F. HAMPTON, Sec.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are circulating in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure and contaminated state the place will never heal. It may scab over and appear to be getting well, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, sometimes for years, continually growing worse, and slowly sapping away the strength and vitality of the sufferer.

There are many ways by which the blood may become contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matter of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs, which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of salves, washes, lotions, powders, etc. A boil, blister, pimple, burn or even a slight scratch, often develops into a festering or discharging ulcer if the system is run down or the blood depreciated from any cause.

A BAD SORE ON HIS FACE.

I was afflicted with a sore on my face of four years standing. It was a small pimple at first but it gradually grew larger and worse in every way until I became alarmed about it and consulted several physicians. They all treated me but the sore continued to grow worse. I saw S. S. S. advertised and commenced its use and after taking it awhile I was completely cured. My blood is now pure and healthy from the effect of S. S. S., and there has not been any sign of the sore since S. S. S. cured it.

West Union, Ohio. THOS. OWEN.

Persons with an inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. Being born with an unhealthy blood supply, the different parts of the body are never fully nourished, and when middle life is reached or passed and the vigor and strength of the system begins to weaken and wane, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore or ulcer is formed, and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. How aggravating and stubborn an old sore can be is best known by those who have nursed and treated one for years, applying salves, washes, powders, etc., with no good results. The place remains and continues to grow worse by eating deeper into the surrounding flesh, festering, discharging, sometimes throbbing with pain, and gradually undermining the constitution by its unhealthy action on the system.

It is a great mistake to expect to cure these places with external applications. True this treatment assists in keeping the parts clean, and are beneficial in this way, but do not reach the real trouble which is in the blood. The practice of cutting out the diseased parts and even scraping the bone beneath, is often resorted to, but these severe measures seldom do any permanent good. The sore may be removed, and for a time heal over, but the same poison that produced it the first time is still in the blood, because The Blood Cannot Be Cut Away, and The Sore Will Return.

S.S.S.

PURELY VEGETABLE

The only treatment that can do any real good is a competent blood purifier—one that goes to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing has ever been found to equal S. S. S. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all poison and morbid matter, reduces the inflammation, and by sending pure, rich blood to the diseased parts, instead of feeding them with impurities, allows the sore to heal naturally and permanently. Not only does S. S. S. purify the blood of all poisons and germs, but builds it up from its weakened and impoverished state, making it strong and healthy and able to supply every part of the body with sufficient and proper nourishment to keep it in perfect health. If you have a sore that is slow in healing, do not depend upon external applications alone, nor experiment with unknown medicines, but begin the use of S. S. S., and by removing every vestige of the cause, cure the trouble permanently. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PROGRAM WAS VERY FINE

First Annual Commencement Was One of Great Interest.

PROGRAM WAS INTERESTING

The Numbers Were Well Executed, Showing Careful Training, and the Large Audience Was Delighted With Orations, Essays and Music.

One of the most delightful entertainments ever held in this city was the commencement exercises of the Gainesville Graded and High School, which occurred at the auditorium on Friday evening, and at which there was a large and representative crowd, patrons and friends of the school.

The exercises were opened by an invocation by Rev. T. J. Nixon of the Methodist church, which was followed by a song of the classes, by the high school.

Hon. Frank Clark had been invited to deliver the address, but on account of urgent business in Lake Butler, where he was summoned by telegram, this part of the program was omitted.

This was one of the most successful commencement programs ever given here. It was a program full of merit, and every individual should have credit, but space prevents. Among those outside of prize winners special mention, however, must be made of the work of Earle Kelley, Sam Mixon, Miss Lucia Patton, Earle Taylor and Jasper Malphurs, all of whom appeared in excellent condition, and who presented their various subjects in a most impressive manner.

The Program.

The following is the program of exercises carried out:

Invocation—Rev. T. J. Nixon.

Song of the classes—High School.

Violin duet—Ruby DeLand, Tom R. McBeath.

Orations by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Edison," Earle Kelley; (b) "La Fayette," Joy Williams.

Essays by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Mary Washington." Winnifred Pedrick.

Piano duet—Edith Bagley, Inis Thomas.

Orations by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "'Stonewall' Jackson," Sam Mixon; (b) "Robert E. Lee." Earle Taylor.

Essays by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "Ayesha," Lucia Patton; (b) "Victoria," Ethel Durst.

Song—"The Purple and the White," Glee Club.

Orations by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Washington," Jasper Malphurs; (b) "Luther," Tom R. McBeath.

Essays by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Isabella of Spain," Lena Hunter; (b) "Joan of Arc," Bessie Kelley.

Vocal solo—Rosabel Pedrick.

Essay—"Ancient Landmarks," Maud Lewis.

Presentation of diplomas—Dr. J. L. Kelley.

Presentation of medals—Hon. W. W. Hampton.

Song—"Good Night," Glee Club.

Judges Awarded Prizes.

The judges in the oratorical contest were Revs. T. J. Nixon and Thos. P. Hay, and Prof. J. C. Adkins. It was indeed a difficult matter to determine the best, but after consultation the gold medals were awarded to the following:

Oratory—Tom R. McBeath.

Essay—Miss Winnefred Pedrick.

Scholarship—Freshman class, Miss Annie Treadwell; Sophomore class, Misses Ethel Durst and Nannie Smith.

J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C., Medal—Frank Treadwell.

Miss Floy Cecil, who had compiled an excellent essay on Frances Willard, was too ill to read the same, but the principal, in excusing her, stated that it was one of the best essays on the program. The essay was not used on account of Miss Cecil's illness.

Miss Lewis Graduates.

Miss Maude Lewis of North Gainesville enjoys the distinction of being the first graduate of the Gainesville Senior High School, and Dr. J. L. Kelley, county superintendent of public instruction, took occasion to pay her a nice compliment, which was well deserved. In presenting the diploma Dr. Kelley, in his usual clever manner, said:

"For years you have been a faithful student in the Gainesville Senior High School. You have conducted yourself during this time, that you have won the confidence and esteem of your instructors, your school-mates and the admiration of the city and county officials.

"You have just cause to feel elated at your success. Permit me to inform you that we rejoice with you. For four years your eyes have been fixed on a goal and now you have reached it, and your efforts are tonight crowned with victory.

"You certainly occupy an enviable position this evening. You are the first graduate of this school and your name must stand first—at the top of this list of the alumni, which is quite a distinction and honor. The curriculum of the Gainesville High School is fully as high as some of the colleges, the faculty are equally as competent as college professors, and I am sure their work is as thorough.

"I am therefore fully persuaded that your graduation is as honorable, and will be as beneficial as it would have been had you received a diploma from a college. If we were to lay a wreathe of flowers on your forehead they would wilt and perish. In your mental accomplishments you have honors more durable. They constitute an embellishment far more resplendent than could be given by flowers, diamonds, or any outward decoration.

"I am confident that the good name of this school will be safe in your hands and that no act of yours will soil its white, or tarnish its purple.

"Commencement day is an important epoch in your life—marriage may be another—death surely will be. May the former, should it occur, be a realization of all that you justly deserve and desire. May God's choice blessings be received before and after the latter.

"Now in testimony of the confidence of the teachers and school officials it affords me much pleasure to hand you this diploma.

"May you be an honor to your parents, your school, and your country."

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Since making our announcement that we would close our banking business to take effect on June 15th, 1907, we have sold our building, fixtures and vaults to W. R. Thomas, G. K. Broome, H. F. Dutton, C. W. Chase, J. H. Vidal, S. J. Thomas and J. B. Padgett, well-known business men in this city and county, who will organize a banking company to be conducted in this building. In order that there may be no discontinuance of the banking business in this building, we have decided to continue our business until the organization of the new company and we respectively ask our friends and patrons who have so kindly done business with us to continue their business with the new firm. It will be managed by wise and conservative business men whom we have known in a business way for years, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. As advised in our circular letter of the 18th, all checks will be paid without interruption, and certificates of deposits redeemed, with interest, on presentation.

The Sun stated on Saturday morning that the faculty had appeared indifferent in the matter of getting in touch with the reporter. If we have been mistaken we regret this injustice very much, as it is not the desire of the reporter to do anyone an injustice. The matter was clearly a misunderstanding, as we have been informed that the matter furnished The Sun has been furnished through this publishing committee, of which Prof. Crowe is the chairman.
